CORPORATE POLICY

The ZETA Group specialises in planning, engineering, development, manufacturing, automation, digitalization and maintenance of customer-specific process and procedure solutions. The ZETA Group is internationally active and supports its customers from the idea for a project to production and ongoing optimisation.

We drive innovation and meet the demands for sustainable corporate development and market position. Our employees and the quality of our internal structure and processes make ZETA's outstanding quality possible.

We serve our customers in an excellent, clearly structured manner in complex and volatile environmental conditions, using high-quality and state-of-the-art processes and technology.

Our employees form our company's capital, as they support and guide our customers as partners to achieve their goals.

We recognise that the health and safety of all ZETA employees, and of all our stakeholders, play a central role in our corporate performance, because only healthy people can achieve great things.

For this reason, health and safety are management's highest priorities. We take great care to comply with our legal obligations to provide healthy and safe working conditions and with our obligation to eliminate hazards and to mitigate risks. In addition, our managers and employees get actively involved in the company to jointly maintain ZETA as a safe and liveable workplace.

Our awareness of the environment and the need for sustainability complements ZETA's quality. It is therefore natural for us to comply with our legal obligations and to follow our ethical principles. ZETA's employees contribute significantly to maintaining the health and improving the quality of life of many people. They contribute their skills with a high level of motivation and enjoyment, especially because they find their work so meaningful.

An integrated management system brings all these strands together and helps to drive ZETA's continuous improvement.

Everyone in our company is constantly responsible for ensuring ZETA's quality. Each individual is aware of the contribution he or she makes to ensuring that ZETA's success is sustainable. Our managers are each accountable for their department's compliance with all applicable regulations.
